

MOUNTAIN KHAKIS® PARTNERS WITH THE ADVENTURE TRAVEL TRADE ASSOCIATION (ATTA)

(Jackson Hole, WY – July 26, 2011) Mountain Khakis®, a leading mountain-inspired lifestyle apparel brand, announces their partnership with the Adventure Travel Trade Association (ATTA).

A global organization, the ATTA supports adventure tourism businesses and destinations the world-over. Their nearly 800 business members are comprised of tour operators, tourism boards, travel agents, accommodation-providers, travel media, and other industry partners. All are united by the common goal of working to ensure the sustainable development of the adventure tourism industry by way of people, planet and profit.

“Mountain Khakis is a perfect fit for our organization,” stated Chris “Chez” Chesak, ATTA’s Vice President of Business Development. “Their outdoor-worthy product and passionate, grassroots company philosophies align perfectly with ATTA’s and our member companies’ philosophies. We’re thrilled to have their support and look forward to wearing more of their product in the field.”

According to Erin Fagan, Marketing Coordinator for Mountain Khakis, “We are proud to support the ATTA. It is a core, unique, passionate group of businesses and individuals who are ‘out there’ every day, living the MK life. These are exactly the people, businesses and ethics we want to support. We look forward to growing our partnership with them in the years ahead.”
